Advisors

Mr. Perrin Hughes,
Miss Gwenn Seaver

One golden daisy alone in the field,
waved at me,
and I was happy.
Until I saw,
It was the wind
tossing the flower,
and I was alone.

Karen Fortini

Now

Happiness is one goal of man
And many find its way,
Yet, some must forfeit this blissful plan,
For they will go astray.
Yes, such is life with ups and downs,
Some reach the sky, some hit the ground.

Gail St. Onge

Look where we're going...

NEXT STOP!

Of all the loves I've sought in vain,
The love of life I have attained,
To learn from wrongs and enjoy the good,
Is what all must learn, if they only could.
To understand and be good to others,
For, you see, life's goal is to treat all like brothers.

Gail St. Onge

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER

Whenever I see a bird in flight how free he seems to be.
He flies so gracefully in the sky
above the roaring sea.
And nothing bothers the happy bird
as he lands upon a tree.
Where he looks upon the world below seeing all there is to see.

Gail St. Onge

sure, we're proud

The peaceful sound of the rushing waves echoes gently in my ears
The sky above with billowing clouds is blue beyond compare
The birds fly overhead and speak, yet, I do not understand
And the sun shines brightly in the sky onto the sparkling sand.

Gail St. Onge

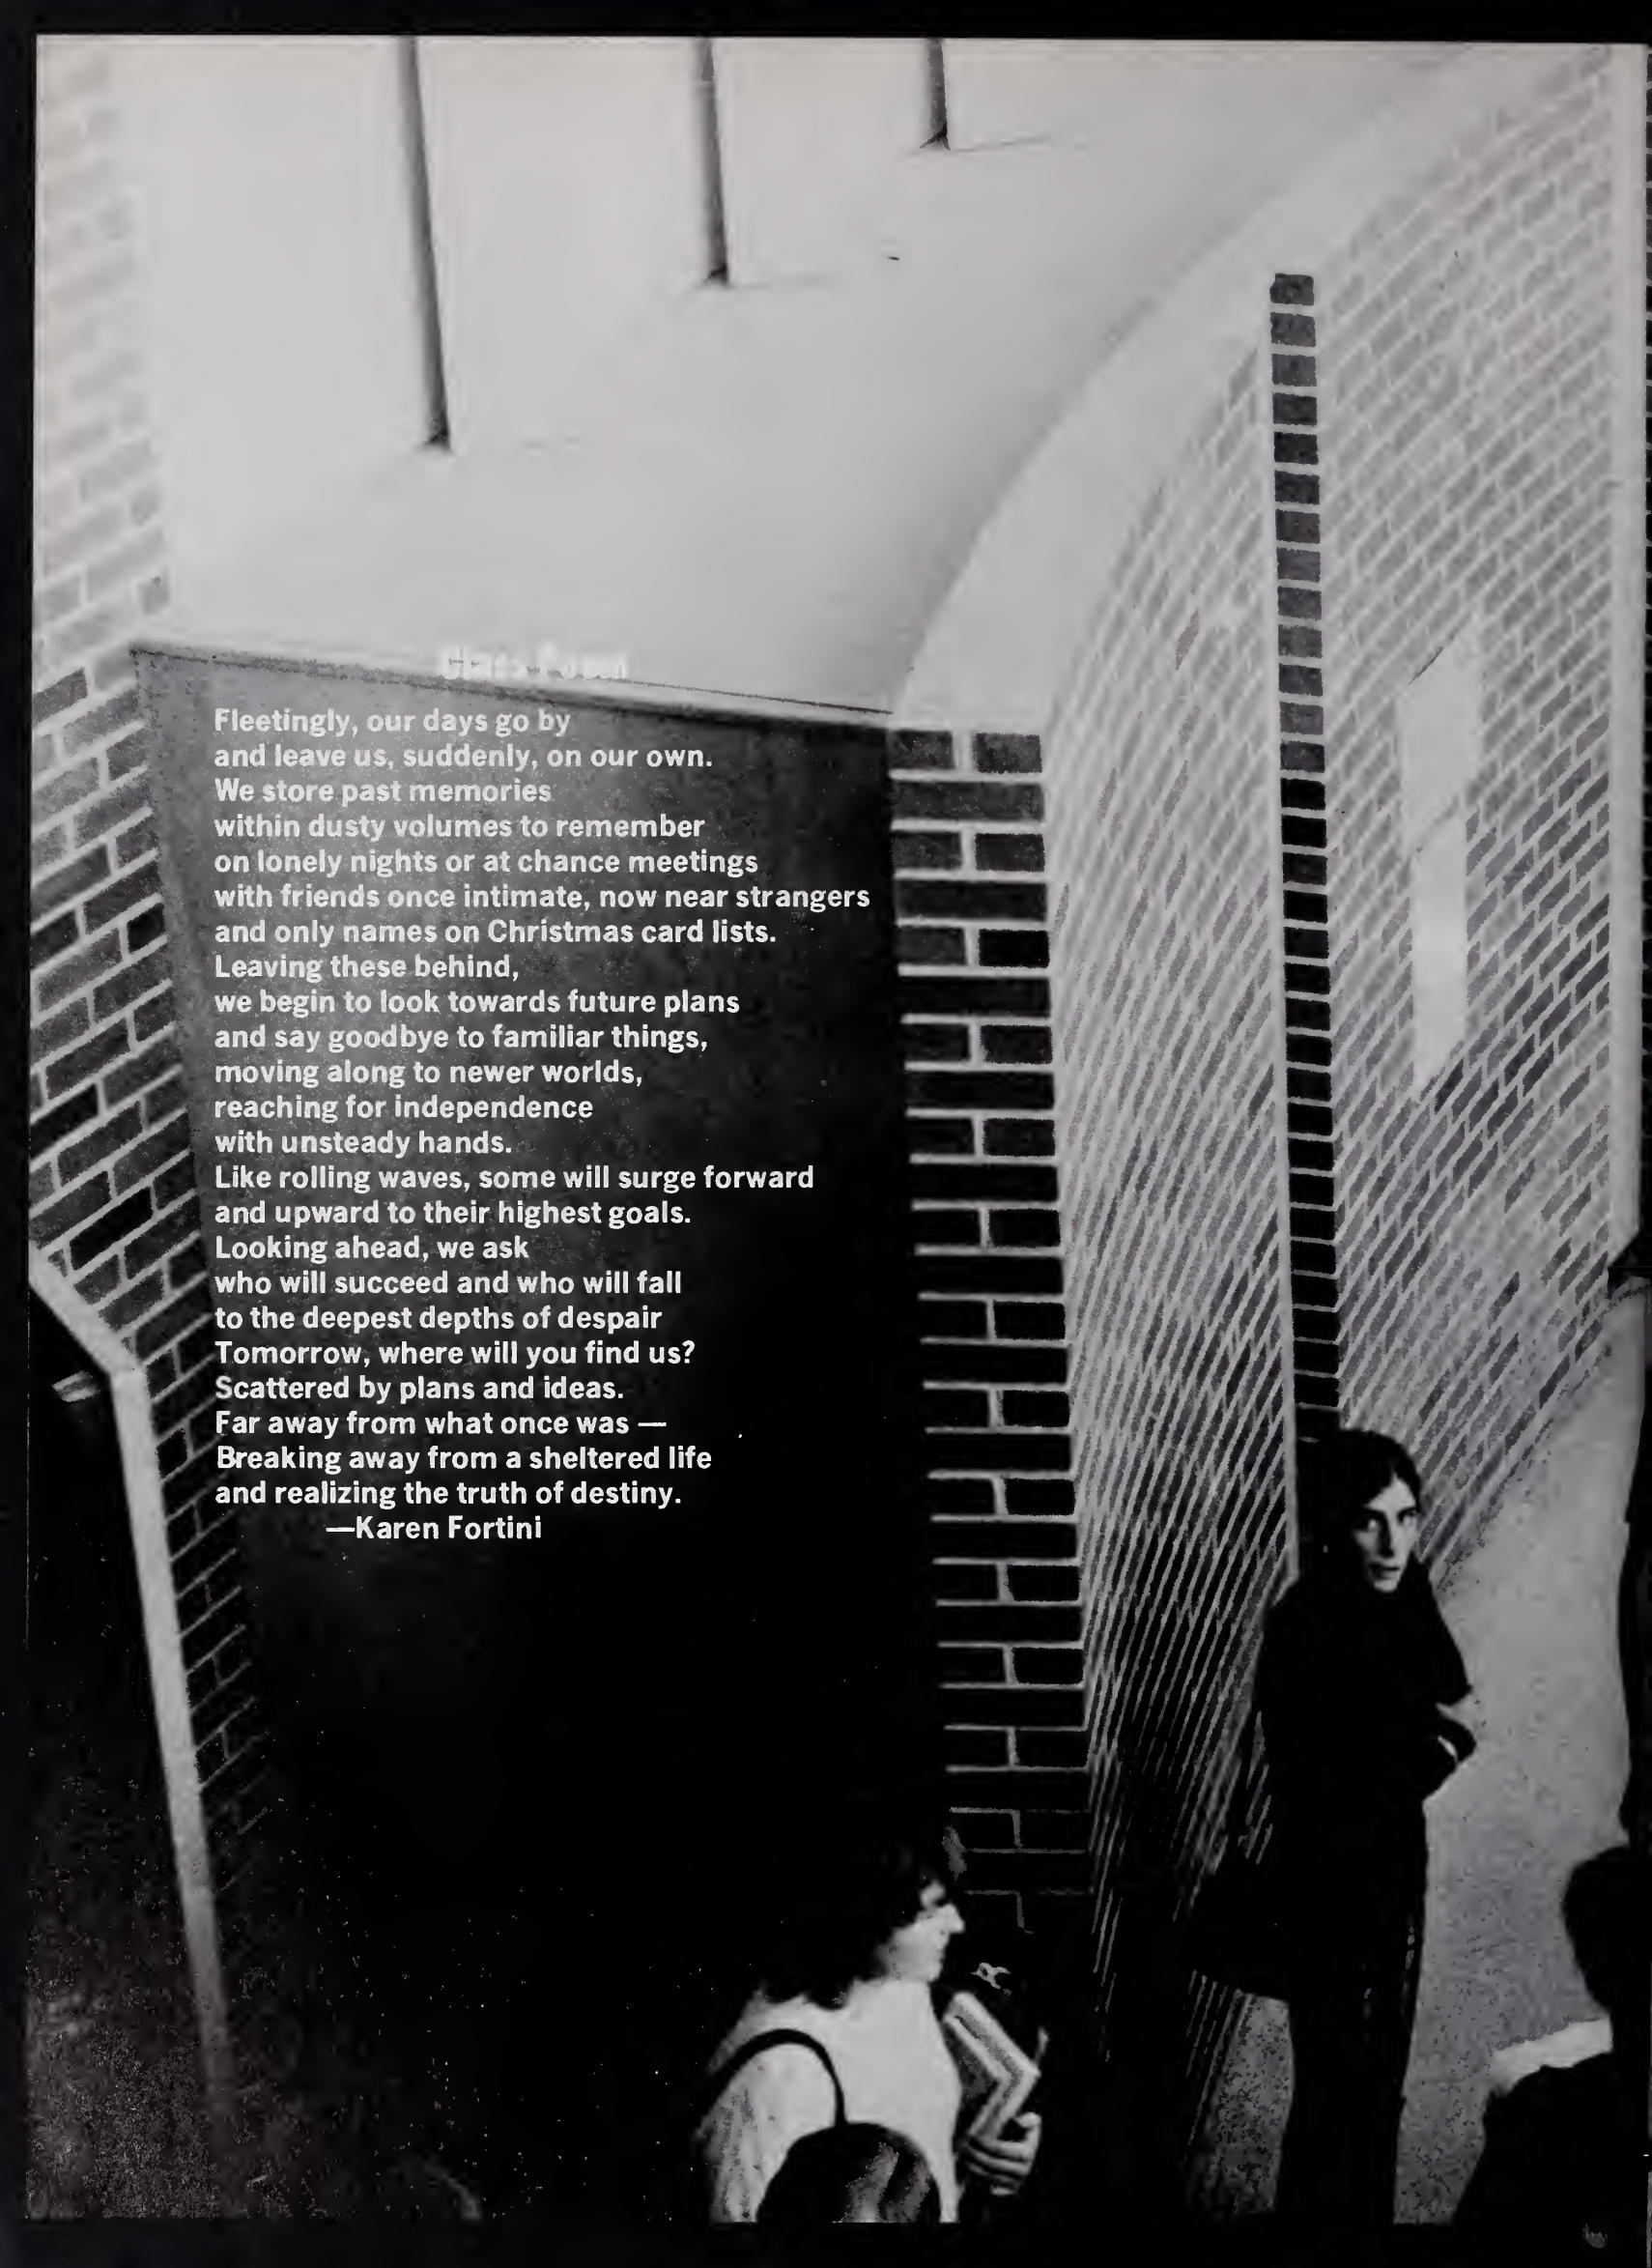

We've got it.

Giving is a gift to prize beyond compare.
For those who give don't take but Learn to share.

Gail St. Onge

Fleetingly, our days go by and leave us, suddenly, on our own.
We store past memories within dusty volumes to remember on lonely nights or at chance meetings with friends once intimate, now near strangers and only names on Christmas card lists.
Leaving these behind,
we begin to look towards future plans
and say goodbye to familiar things, moving along to newer worlds,
reaching for independence
with unsteady hands.
Like rolling waves, some will surge forward and upward to their highest goals.
Looking ahead, we ask who will succeed and who will fall to the deepest depths of despair
Tomorrow, where will you find us?
Scattered by plans and ideas.
Far away from what once was — Breaking away from a sheltered life and realizing the truth of destiny.

—Karen Fortini

Dedicated to . . .

We can't improve on perfection, so we give you more of it.

His familiar voice no longer lingers
at P-C Stadium

A man, equally sharing Plymouth's joyful times as well as the not-so-memorable ones.

Giving himself— on special occasions.—

Bringing much to offer —the town receiving bountifully-touching youngsters hearts, gaining unending admiration.

Philanthropy on a high scale

Smiling often, surpassing the rudiments of daily life, always progressing forward

Words of respect and praise will not project enough.

But simple words are all we have to say Thanks in memory of

WALTER B. HASKEL

In Memoriam

Susan Reggiani

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead. She is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there.
And you — oh, you, who the wildest yearn
For an old-time step, and the glad return,
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.
Think of her still as the same. I say,
She is not dead — she is just away.

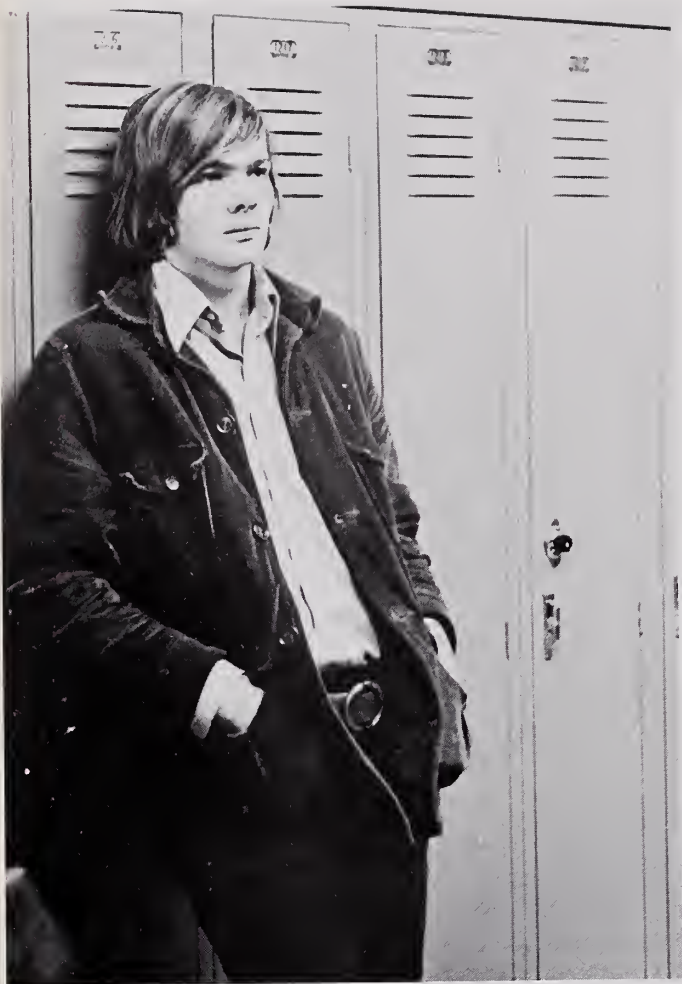

James Whitcomb Riley

Our Co-Captains

The Blue-Eagles started and ended the season in a big way under coach Paul Urban, defeating the defending league champions Bridgewater-Raynham in the opener, and defeating Silver-Lake 24-21 in the finale.

Joe Balboni ignited P-C in the home opener, intercepting a B-R pass on the 25 yard line and running it in for the score. Rockland was a tough loss, 21-19 with P-C's scoring leader Jay Fernandes scoring three touchdowns.

The biggest victory came on Thanksgiving when, trailing at the half, came back to outscore the Lakers and win 24-21. Greg Bolduc threw two touchdown passes to Jeff Thom. The co-captains provided a big boost, Tom Stefani running in an intercepted pass from 25 yards out and Paul Maccaferri rushing for 134 yards.

Something bothering you, Tom?

Time out for a little ballet.

This is no time to show off your juggling act. Jeff!

The Plymouth-Carver Soccer Team enjoyed its most successful season under Coach Richard Ward, compiling an 8 win, 4 loss record.

The Eagles set team records for the most goals scored (37), fewest goals allowed (18), and most shutouts (4). Jamie Wood, sophomore, led the Eagles in scoring with 10 goals and 7 assists. Other scoring leaders were Butch Coleman with 6 goals, 5 assists, and Sonnie Hamblin with 6 goals and 1 assist.

The finest game of the season occurred in Duxbury, when P-C defeated the league champions in a 3-2 overtime victory. The winning goal was scored on a penalty shot by Butch Coleman.

Coach Ward can look to better seasons in the future, for the Junior Varsity team also had a winning record (7-5) under first year coach Donald Lang.

Butch is on the ball.

Field Hockey

The field hockey team, under the fine coaching of Miss Nancy "Murt" MacDuffee had an outstanding winning season this year. Being a new inexperienced varsity team, their ambition and desire to win proved to be a great asset to them. Their record, 8 wins, 1 loss, and 3 ties gave the varsity girls a divisional championship and sent them into the playoffs against Hingham. At the play-offs, P-C was defeated by a score of 3-0 in a well fought, evenly matched hockey game.

The Junior Varsity had a very successful season also, having a record of 5 wins, 4 ties, and 3 losses with many of the girls showing great potential for future varsity teams.

For the 20th consecutive season, Coach Hank Rogers guided the P.C. Varsity to a winning season. The Eagles jumped off to a fast 6-0 record, yet lack of Varsity experience was the story in the remaining 12 games, Plymouth falling to a 5-7 record. The State Tournament dropped from Plymouth's reach by one game; but a thrilling 52-50 overtime loss to the League Champions, Rockland, shut P.C. out of the championship rounds.

Cheerleaders

The Cheerleaders of Plymouth-Carver participate in pep rallies, and perform during football, basketball, and hockey games.

There are two squads this year, Junior Varsity and Varsity.

Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders lend support to our Jr. Varsity basketball team and also the P-C hockey team. This squad is a welcome addition to P-C and has been a great success.

Varsity Cheerleaders support the P-C Varsity football and basketball and also the hockey team.

Both squads work together to support the various teams and to let them know the school is behind them.

Hockey

The P-C varsity hockey team, led by high-scoring forwards Mike Tribble, Jim Tribble, and Dwight Delano, finished with a 3rd place 8-5-1 league record, and a 9-7-1 combined record.

The goal tending of Reno Baietti, Blake Estes and Jim Freeman allowed only 25 goals in 14 league games for a 1.79 goals per game average.

Plymouth-Carver and Coach Ben Hatch can look to a better record next year, as 16 of 20 varsity players will be returning.

The band in action

The Plymouth-Carver High marching band is now boasting a membership of one hundred and six musicians.

The band, its marching girls, and its majorettes, all under the direction of Mario A. Crociati, have earned many honors and awards and have proven themselves outstanding as a marching and concert band. The awards include the Quincy Christmas Parade, 350th Parade, the St. Patrick's Parade in South Boston, The Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena, and Rose Parade Band Time competition. In concert performance, the band has earned a Division one rating; the highest possible.

Now if I can just find a fly

And no strings attached.

Is he really going to fly?

Drama and Debating Club

The Drama Club aims to give students a knowledge of the various aspects of the theater and urges all who are interested in the dramatic arts to join. The club has planned one major production this year, "Once Upon a Mattress", a theatrical satire on the "Princess and the Pea."

The Debate Club is open to any student interested in learning the skill of debating. These students participate in debates with many other schools in the Southeastern Massachusetts League. The club meets regularly to hold practice debates. They are coached by Mr. Cohen.

Drama Club Members Get Together

The swamp of home is lovely to behold.

See you later! We're going up to "our" room.

The Drama Club's fall production, "Once Upon a Mattress" was a Broadway spoof of the "Princess and the Pea." The musical comedy was presented on November 19th and 20th, both nights to a full house. Lead roles were: Elisa Al-Chokhachy, Princess Winnified; Philip Rezendes, Prince Dauntless; Bette Davis, Queen Aggravain; Joey Deetz, King Seximus; Lynda Morini, Lady Larken; Soni Jesse, Sir Harry; Dwight Davis, the Jester; and Sue Vierra, the Minstrel. The show was a huge success, and the audience was kept in stitches all night over the antics of the off-beat characters. It was truly one of the best yet.

You mean you swam the moat?!

I won't go to my room without my cocoa!

I've heard of alarm clocks but this is ridiculous!

The Jester, the Minstrel and I

Do you believe people paid money to see this?

Once Upon A Mattress

Elisa has always been shy!

Are you sure the New York City Rockettes started this way?

The National Honor Society is made up of Juniors and Seniors who have maintained an average of 85 or better since their freshman year. These students are elected by a faculty committee and must show qualities of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. This year the Honor Society has sponsored a series of cultural enrichment trips as well as tutoring programs and the Student Handbook. During midyear exams, Honor Society members sold refreshments to the students. They also presented a show, featuring local talent, with the proceeds going towards Christmas trips for the elderly and Christmas presents for the patients at Taunton Hospital.

We the editors of the 1972 Pilgrim do sincerely thank the following people who have given us valuable assistance and knowledge in our efforts to create this yearbook.

Delmar Printing Company, for being so patient with us as we never made a deadline on time.

Mr. Robert Vantine, our representative from Delmar Printing Company, for his advice and assistance.

Vantines, our photographers for their services that are beyond our most chosen words of praise.

Mr. Perrin Hughes and Miss Gwenn Seaver, our advisors, for their advice.

Al Thompson and Mr. Tommie Walker, who contributed all the excellent pictures that this yearbook could not have done without.

Editors of the staffs, who co-operated and worked efficiently in helping us.

The few seniors, that came nights to help us when the yearbook was behind.

Friends, sponsors, and advertisers, without whose support and confidence, we could never have achieved our goal.

Cathy Atti
Brenda McCarthy
